

RelyOn Acquires Clyde Training Solutions in the UK

March 24th, 2025

RelyOn has announced the acquisition of Clyde Training Solutions (CTS), a high-quality provider of training services for maritime, offshore, and renewable energy sectors, from Northern Marine Group (NMG).

RelyOn is a global business operating in more than 20 countries from more than 40 facilities primarily servicing the offshore, renewables, maritime and electrical infrastructure industries.

Its robust platform of safety, competence, and skills training facilities across the UK, are based in Northeast Scotland, Northeast England, and Northwest England. The addition of Clyde Training Solutions bridges a critical geographical gap, offering a seamless training solution to customers across the UK.

CTS operates a strong, multi-facility training provision in Clydebank. This acquisition enables RelyOn to extend its reach into the Glasgow area, further reinforcing its commitment to delivering services where its customers need them most.

Colin Leyden, RelyOn UK MD says: “The acquisition of CTS reflects RelyOn’s commitment to have a global network of safety training and competence services. With a strengthened footprint, now 8 locations across the UK, RelyOn is better equipped than ever to meet the evolving training needs of our customers throughout the UK.”

Philip Fullerton, Northern Marine Group, Managing Director, said: “Clyde Training Solutions has grown significantly since its launch a decade ago. As a key part of RelyOn and its growing geographic footprint, CTS can continue to build on its reputation for quality in the maritime, offshore and renewables energy sectors.

CTS enhances RelyOn's growing offerings across the UK and will be seamlessly integrated into the RelyOn platform.
